EVEN IF YOU'RE GONE
WE CAN MEET
SAY SOMETHING
WHENEVER YOU GO AWAY
MY BUTT TO THE WORLD
LETTING GO
THINGS WE'LL KNOW TOMORROW

MONTVAILLANT

EVEN IF YOU'RE GONE

The one I love
is gone from me.
I see her here
like you see me.

She had a man
upon her arm.
The talk was sweet and full of charm

The one I love is just like you.
I still love you, even if you're gone.
The one I love is just like you.
I still love you, even if you're gone.

Hum, hum hum.
Hum, hum hum.

I hated him.
I hated her.
I fear I'll kill
if I stay here.

So down the road
I'm gonna go.
Where I'll end up
well, I don't know.
Well, I don't know.

The one I love is just like you.
I still love you, even if you're gone.
The one I love is just like you.
I still love you, even if you're gone.

Remember me
I was the one who could have given you the world.

WE CAN MEET

We can meet somewhere tomorrow but tomorrow never comes.
Meet under a fleeting moon or under the summer sun.
We can meet again tomorrow but the both of us know we won't meet tomorrow 'cos I've gotta go.

We can meet again someday. Only call my name.
You won't call tomorrow; Tomorrow's filled with pain.
We can meet again tomorrow, I know where you'll be.
Meet again tomorrow when you'll be missing me.

We can meet but again we missed it. We can meet but again we missed it.

We might meet again one day. Meet one day as friends.
We should meet again one day 'cos how can love just end.
We might meet again one day. I'll see you in a crowd.
But I won't say nothing. I won't cry out loud.

We can meet but again we missed it. We can meet but again we missed it.
We missed it.

(We can meet) All the tries we didn't try
and all the smiles we never had.
(but again we missed it) All the tears and all the fears
and all the worst you brought to me.
(We can meet) All the words you never said.
The best is that you went away
(but again we missed it)
I was getting crazy.
They stained on me.

(We can meet) All the tries we didn't try
and all the smiles we never had.
(but again we missed it) All the tears and all the fears
and all the worst you brought to me.
(We can meet) All the words you never said.
The best is that you went away
(but again we missed it)
I was getting crazy.
They stained on me.

SAY SOMETHING

Say you love me, that you'll be mine. Say you love me 'til the end of time.
Say you love me and say you'll care. Say you'll always be there.

But please say something, words can not kill.
Please say something, words are here to heal.

Say you love me. Let me hear. Say you love me in my ear.
Say you love me and say you'll stay. Say that you won't go away.

But please say something, words can not kill.
Please say something, words are here to heal.

Say you love me. Let me hear. Say you love me and say it clear.
Say you love me. Turn out the light. Say you love me here tonight.

But please say something, words can not kill.
Please say something, words are here to heal.

Say you love me in the middle of a crowd. Say you love me and shout it loud.
Say you love me, enlight my life. Say you love me and be my wife.

So please say something, words can not kill.
Please say something, words are here to heal.

(But please say something, words can not kill.)
Silence is a wound, silence is the unknown,
Silence is a door, a door never opened.
(Please say something, words...)
Silence is a fear that can not be fought.
Silence is the way to cowardice.

(But please say something, words can not kill.)
Silence is a wound, silence is the unknown,
Silence is a door, a door never opened.
(Please say something, words...)
Silence is a fear that can not be fought.
Silence is the way to cowardice.

WHENEVER YOU GO AWAY

Whenever you go away
a part of me dies.
Whenever you go away
the heart in me cries.
Why are you leaving?
Where will you go?
A part of you lives in me,
the one who loved you so.

Whenever you go away; Will you love me tomorrow?
Whenever you go away; Like you loved me yesterday.

Whenever you go away
I start to feel the tears.
Whenever you go away
I start to feel the fears.
Why must you leave me?
Why will you go?
Open your eyes and you'll see
the one who loved you so

Whenever you go away; Will you love me tomorrow?
Whenever you go away; Like you loved me yesterday.

Whenever you go away
I feel my dreams are dying.
Whenever you go away
I can't stop the crying.
Why are you leaving?
Tell me I must know.
I'm the one whose grieving.
I'm the one who loved you so

Whenever you go away; Will you love me tomorrow?
Whenever you go away; Like you loved me yesterday.

hum, hum, hum, hum, like you loved me yesterday.
hum, hum, hum, hum, like you loved me yesterday.

MY BUTT TO THE WORLD

Well it's okay with me, it's just fine.
If no one believes, I'll still be alright.
They can eat my dust when I leave em behind.
They can all shut up and look at my backside.
I don't listen to them, don't give em the time,
just a distraction from their meaningless lives.

'cos It's me against the world and I don't care if they talk.
I won't stop until I've proved them wrong.

Those who speak behind my back,
my butt will look at them.
Those who speak behind my back,
they will have to deal with that.

So try to step on me but I will put up a fight.
You'll need an army to take down this guy.
You don't have much to say and you're no friends of mine.
So you can kiss me right where the sun don't shine.
I know what I'm worth and I won't lose sight.
Say whatever you want I don't pay no mind.

Cause on an eath filled with snakes, I'm clever as a fox, proud as a lion and I tell em to kick rocks.

'cos It's me against the world and I don't care if they talk.
I won't stop until I've proved them wrong.

Those who speak behind my back,
my butt will look at them.
Those who speak behind my back,
they will have to deal with that.

'cos It's me against the world and I don't care if they talk.
I won't stop until I've proved them wrong.

LETTING GO

It all feels a little different to me. The days pass by so quickly.
She said that she was getting bored but she wouldn't tell me any more.

Goodbye, she said she had enough of me.
Well that's fine, plenty of fish out in the sea.
New life, got no one else to please,
gotta find a place that makes me happy.

It all feels a little strange these days. All I know is that I needed a change.
I'm searching for somewhere that's far from you with no expectations to live up to.

Those days have gone and I'm on the road, find what I'm looking for in parts unknown.

I can feel the tide change.

I should've known it all along. You only wanted what could be bought.
Enjoy that box where you choose to live. You take and take but you never give.

I'm letting go of the things I can't control.

(You never give) Goodbye, she said she had enough of me.
Well that's fine, plenty of fish out in the sea.
New life, got no one else to please,
gotta find a place that makes me happy.

I should've known it all along. You only wanted what could be bought.
Enjoy that box where you choose to live. You take and take but you never give.

I'm letting go of the things I can't control.

(You never give) Goodbye, she said she had enough of me.
Well that's fine, plenty of fish out in the sea.

(You never give) I should've known it all along. You only wanted what could be bought.
Enjoy that box where you choose to live. You take and take but you never give.
Never give.

THINGS WE'LL KNOW
TOMORROW

I wish I knew what to say.
Please stay here; don't go away.
I don't know if you'll stay
But if you could stay with me.

Things we'll know tomorrow
we wish we knew today.

Today I see loves running dry.
All I do is sit and cry.
What can I do to make you stay a little bit longer;
tell me the way.

Things we'll know tomorrow
we wish we knew today.

Don't walk out through that door,
I don't think I can take no more.
Stay with me 'til break of day.
Please stay beside me.

Things we'll know tomorrow
we wish we knew today.

Oh oh oh...

And so love comes and so it goes.
How it dies, no one knows.
Now I see I threw it away.
I don't want you to stay.

Things we'll know tomorrow
we wish we knew today.

Things we'll know tomorrow
we wish we knew today.
