THE UNSUBMITTED

I don't care to be cursed
by my generation.
Wild spirits
have all gone.
No more subversion.

Don't bow down, don't bow down. Don't...
Don't bow down, don't bow down. Don't...

I'm growing old and having the heart
like a shooting-star.
I'll never be lost enough to loose
the way I have to take.

Don't bow down, don't bow down. Don't bow down.
Don't bow down, don't bow down. Don't bow down.

I'll never abdicate, never abdicate.
I'll never abdicate.

I am not going to submit myself.

I'll never submit myself. I'll never abdicate.
I'll never submit myself, I'll never abdicate.

Don't bow down, don't bow down. Don't bow down.

I'll never submit myself, I'll never abdicate.

FAREWELL AND YET

This is where the story ends. This is the long goodbye.
This is the road that has no end. This is the time for love to die.

This is the long goodbye. This is the vale of tears.
This is the lonely road. This is the place of fears.

This is the long goodbye. This is the time to leave.
This is the end of love. This is the time to grieve.

This is the long goodbye. This is the time to go.
This is the day it ends but how I loved you so.

Farewell, I've left. Farewell and yet.

This is the long goodbye. This is the trail of tears.
This is the vale of sighs. This is the time of fears.

This is the long goodbye. This is the hardest time.
I can't sing a lullaby and I can't make you mine.

This is the time for tears; shed them on the ground.
I must be moving on. I can't wait around.

This is the long goodbye. This is the time and day.
Farewell, I've left. Farewell and yet.
I have cried myself dry now I must go away.
Farewell, I've left. Farewell and yet.

This is the hardest time. This is the darkest night.
Farewell, I've left. Farewell and yet.
You were never mine; you know that I'm right.
Farewell, I've left. Farewell and yet.

DROP THE BOMB

You've been fighting.
You've been on your way too long.
Searching for your destination.

You've been in war
with your conscience and yourself.
Curling up in frustration.

If you look for me
you will find that I'm right here.
No distance is enough to have us part.

Won't you drop the bomb on your beliefs, your feelings.
Won't you drop the bomb and let's hope you feel something.
Won't you drop the bomb on your beliefs, your feelings.
Won't you drop the bomb and let's hope you feel something.

And in the end
let's not pretend
we know just what we want.
For it is a fool
who believes it's so cool
when it's clearly not.

Drop the bomb, drop the bomb, drop the bomb...
Drop the bomb, drop the bomb, drop the bomb...

You've been fighting.
You've been righting all the wrongs with grace and with patience.
You've been surviving.
By yourself you have belonged and you know it's just the start.

Drop the bomb, drop the bomb, drop the bomb...
Drop the bomb, drop the bomb, drop the bomb...

Won't you drop the bomb on your beliefs, your feelings.
Won't you drop the bomb and let's hope you feel something.
Won't you drop the bomb on your beliefs, your feelings.
Won't you drop the bomb and let's hope you feel something.

SO FAR SO GOOD

What could it possibly be? I don't know, I just can't see.
Maybe we've been misunderstood.
It takes a lot to keep believing. Crawling out of the hands of fate.
Miles away from deceit.
It takes a strong heart to survive when you aren't the one in need.

Don't look back. Gotta find what you believe in.
Don't look back. Gotta seek what is real.

So far so good; It's the truth, you know.
So far so good; better than before.
So far so good; I do believe.
So far so good; I'm the better me.

What could they possibly want? We gave enough, we've done it all.
For a world of tranquillity you give your best, but still take the fall.
Looking out at this morbid scape,
I start to wonder how it once was.
The clouds come near, we gather in fear.
Together we're stronger, fighting for our cause.

So far so good; It's the truth, you know.
Don't look back. Gotta find what you believe in.
Don't look back. Gotta seek what is real.
So far so good; better than before.
So far so good; I do believe.
Don't look back. Gotta find what you believe in.
Don't look back. Gotta seek what is real.
So far so good; i'm the better me.

Yeah, I believe. Yeah, I believe.

So far so good; It's the truth, you know.
So far so good; better than before.
So far so good; I do believe.
So far so good; I'm the better me.

THE RAIN ON ME

Because it mattered to her
I made her part of my design.
It had been a while.

Yeah and as we grew nearer
Oh and I thought that we'd be fine.
Before we drew the line.

Stumbling about
I was lost only to be found.
I carry no regrets, I've come around.

Lost in the shroud
my dreams I couldn't live without.
a land of plenty shook by drought.

So I take the matters into my own hands as I stagger.
To my feet, denying defeat.

Stumbling about
I was lost only to be found.
I carry no regrets, I've come around.

Lost in the shroud
my dreams I couldn't live without.
a land of plenty shook by drought.

Heart in hand and all alone
but you should know you're never far from home.

Stumbling about
I was lost only to be found.
I carry no regrets, I've come around.

Lost in the shroud
my dreams I couldn't live without a land of plenty shook by drought.

Come the rain, come the rain, come the rain on me. Come the rain on me.

BUY YOURSELF A DREAM

There comes a time. Every now and then.
When your soul needs space.
You can not play pretend.

You pack your bags.
Throw your phone out of reach.
You set out in a blaze to buy yourself a dream.

Buy yourself a dream. You bet it'd feel real.
You know there's something that you can't just can't leave unseen.
Buy yourself a dream. You bet it'd feel real.
You know there's just one life. There's no space, no space for fears

You travel far and wide.
Capture the world in those eyes.
Come back a different man.
You always take me by surprise.

Buy yourself a dream.
You bet it'd feel real.
You know there's just one life.
There's no space, no space for fears.

There comes a time. Every now and then.
When you can't get enough and you just need to escape.
You make up your mind. Tell your friends you're gonna leave.
You set out in a blaze to buy yourself a dream.

Buy yourself a dream. You bet it'd feel real.
You know there's just one life. There's no space, no space for fears. Come on!
Buy yourself a dream. You bet it'd feel real.
You know there's something that you can't just can't leave unseen.
Buy yourself a dream. You bet it'd feel real.
You know there's just one life. There's no space, no space for fears.

DRIFTING FAR FROM HOME

As the starlight glints past your eyes.
I see scapes long forgotten

All of our lives
we keep searching for a place to call home

Drifting but never tired
of exploring the unknown.
Yes, we're far from the place we belong
but never far from home.

I watch you glow
as you come alive.
Light up from within.

A beauty so pure.
So surreal.
Deeper than the skin.

Drifting but never tired
of exploring the unknown.
Yes, we're far from the place we belong
but never far from home.

Lost in the unknown
Oh, how it feels like home!

Drifting but never tired
of exploring the unknown.
Yes, we're far from the place we belong
but never far from home.

Drifting but never tired
of exploring the unknown.
Yes, we're far from the place we belong
but never far from home.

Never far from home. Never far from home.
